

ANNOUNCEMENT

On 3-4 November, 2016, in Yerevan will be held 2nd international conference “Nation, State, Motherland, ideology of State”. It devoted to the 25th anniversary of the independence of the Republic of Armenia. Conference sections include: History, Political sciences, International relations, Law, Psychology, Sociology.

The organizer of the conference is the:

Faculty of History and Law of Armenian State Pedagogical University after Kh. Abovyan.

The articles will be published and they must meet the following criteria:

- It must correspond to the title of the conference
- It must not be published before or sent to publication
- PhD students must send their article along with recommendation letters from their scientific adviser
- Articles are submitted in Armenian, Russian and English
- The title of article must be written in capital letters, then author's first name, last name, keywords: should be 5-7 words, after which the article content should be included
- the actuality of the theme must be presented in introduction
- All the notes and references should be given in the footnotes
- Each report must contain a Summary
- Pages must comply A4 format, in MS WORD, 4-8 pages, indentation- 2 sm, line spacing- 1.5, Font- GHEA Grapalat for Armenian, Times New Roman for English and Russian, Font Size- 12,
- Together with article, author's biography, scope of scientific interests, as well as email address must be submitted
- Articles must be sent in electronic version before September 30th to the following email address: conferencehistoryam@gmail.com,
- For more details you may call +374-99-60-27-16.

Faculty of History and Law

