

Republican Conference

On 25 March, a republican conference will be held at the Pedagogical University on the subject of “Social Sciences Teaching Issues at the HEI and Schools”. It is organized by the Faculty of History and Law of the Armenian State Pedagogical University after Khachatur Abovyan and Armenian

Centre of Democratic Education-CIVITAS NGO.
Objective

- Discuss the issues of teaching social sciences
- Suggest more effective methods of teaching
- Develop cooperation among structures, scientists and lecturers interested in social science

Articles on the reports will be published in digests

- The articles must be submitted on an A4 paper format (210x297), with the length of 20 pages, and the margins must be 20mm on the top, bottom, left and right.
 - The font of the articles must be GHEA Grapalat in Armenian, and Times New Roman in Russian and English languages in size 12, the Spacing must be 1.5, aligned text on the left and right, no hyphens used.
 - The title of the article must be written in capital letters; the title should be followed by the full name of the author; the key-words must be 10 followed by the content of the article.
 - All notes and references must be mentioned in the footnotes mentioning the reference number on each page.
 - The article must have summaries in Armenian, Russian and English.
 - Information about the author must be present at the end of the article in Armenian, Russian and English Languages including his academic title, degree, position, the organization, the scope of his academic interests, and e-mail.
- Applications are accepted by 06 March 2016. Article must be sent to the following e-mail: dhre.center@civitasarmenia.am.